What an uneventful life

She called for violent and none came

She called for people to over throw the government and none came

She called for people to support socialism and none came

She calls for the people who live in a free country to become slaves of the government and none came

She is now useless, old and irreverent; death does not even find her worthy of attention

May suggest a tomb stone epitaph

Here lies; Frances Fox Piven

She drowned herself in a toilet to be remembered

Well Frances I guess it is up to you now..... Please use an American Standard

WATCH THIS...

I believe that when the laws of this great nation fail it's own citizens, and all the voting and talking has been done... "We The People" have a very serious choice to make...I for one believe our fore fathers would expect nothing less!

As I mentioned in previous posts...ONE SHOT...ONE KILL!

"We The People" will need to stand up for what is right...a few well placed marksmen with high powered rifles...then there would not be any violence...those spineless evil people will not show their faces in the light of day again! (hummm...sounds a little like the terrorist attack the Eric Holder and Obama told Americans we could withstand)

Where do I start with this one? First, the unemployed cant afford guns, they've pawned most of theirs, nor can they afford ammo, second, liberals are cowards to the core, it would be interesting to see their reaction to the sound of bullets whizzing by their heads, third, just who are are "they" supposed to rise up against? The government that they helped to create? Forth, does she think that we are all that stupid and oblivious to the truth?? Fifth, there simply aren't enough dirtbags to muster an effective resistance to much of anything. There's more of us that there are of you. She may get a revolution, but not the kind she's hoping for. Remember Mussolini and Chouchescu Frances? I'll bet she does.

Frances, claiming to be intelligent, and calling for action, is oblivious to what this nation really is, and who we really are. The army (?) of fools who have become dependent on the government teat have been conned by their leaders and are without knowledge of the system which really works (the constitution; by us and for us). These fools are delusional. A few men with understanding of the constitution and belief that they are right, can always beat the army of fools who believe in nothing but their own laziness. Unfortunately, every generation needs to learn for itself. So be it, Frances, bring it on, let's get it over with. Time to teach your followers and your children the lesson you failed to teach them. We are a nation of laws. We have rights which cannot be taken away, even by you, or to make YOUR life easier. You don't get to change them without changing the constitution (Google it). And many of us, believing we are right, are willing to put the question to the test. Frances, do you believe enough to risk your own life, liberty, or property? And that of your offspring too? If so then ... bring it on.

I was just thinking the same thing. Things will be VERY different here in the United States if crowds of stupid progressive idiots take to the streets. Conservative people in the US own guns. We like guns. We buy guns. We practice with our guns.

To all you guys that think running to the country will make you safer, think about this:

In rural areas the government forces will not be nearly as limited in their choice of weapons as they will in the cities. Therefore, 500lb bunker busting bombs and the like could be used without fear of "collateral damage" which the majority of Americans would not accept in built up areas. There they can and will isolate and annihilate you.

In the cities, where there are more people, it will be much easier to pull off a mission and quickly disappear into the masses of human bodies and preponderance of asphalt/concrete jungles.

That's why I strongly suggest folks buy battle carbines with folding or collapseable stocks and 16" barrels so they can be more easily hidden under jackets and such. Also, buy in NATO approved calibers (5.56/.223, 7.62/.308) so you can resupply ammo from the bodies of your enemies too.

I will predict that a large percentage of American military will side and fight with the people.

Our primary enemies will be Law Enforcement. Especially those that belong to government worker's unions. They ain't gonna want to have to give up those very, very generous benefits and retirement paychecks.

I hope I'm wrong.

Shouldn't the disenfranchised and jobless be angry at the old hippies like Piven who preached a utopian revolution in the sixties and failed to deliver? After all, if these genius "pioneers" of the revolution couldn't beat down "da man" when they had the element of surprise why are they calling on the ones who are comfortable in their lack of effort to climb the success ladder to do so?

I say they should vent their frustration by stringing up the old hippy revolutionaries like Piven.

Posted on December 31, 2010 at 7:25pm

Like these Lib pansies could pull off a "violent revolution" in the US...

Consider some stats:

The state of Wisconsin has gone an entire deer hunting season without someone getting killed. That's great. There were over 600,000 hunters.

Allow me to restate that number. Over the last two months, the eighth largest army in the world – more men under arms than Iran; more than France and Germany combined – deployed to the woods of a single American state to help keep the deer menace at bay.

But that pales in comparison to the 750,000 who are in the woods of Pennsylvania this week. Michigan's 700,000 hunters have now returned home.

Toss in a quarter million hunters in West Virginia, and it is literally the case that the hunters of those four states alone would comprise the largest army in the world.

Good Luck Ms. Piven!

Give her a few bottles of water and some of them little crackers with peanut butter between them, put plenty of airholes in the wooden box so she will get plenty of air, it doesnt really matter to me where they fly her and toss her out as long as her parachute is in good working order. Samali would be nice but there are so many nice places to choose from it would take a team of heavy thinkers to choose the perfect place. If she doesnt love it she can leave it. You can see the light of God in their eyes. This woman has soulless eyes & the pure dead evil of satan comes through. When she dies, as we all will, the world will be a better place. God forgive me for saying that. Maybe He can yet save her soul if He should choose. But, her teachings have caused so much destruction & hatred that I don't know how to reverse the wheel. It is in God's hands & we must follow His lead.

Ms. Piven is trying to live out her and her husband's hippie dreams. They underestimate the resolve of the American people that love the Constitution, God, and Country. Ms. Piven, your plans will NEVER succeed, because we are the people that were to be the MOST BLESSED people on the face of the earth, and no Assyrian/Gothic progressive like you is going to bring us to a violent and bloody revolution. Scheme on Ms. Piven, because we have your number, and the number of Obama and his administration thanks to Glenn Beck, and the rest of the leftist progressive/communist/socialist/marxists. You have wasted your life trying to bring about a collapse of our system of government so that you can create a new one. It is not God's plan that the most blessed sons of Joseph (Ephraim – Great Britain, and Manasseh – The United States of America) should ever fall or succumb to an ole' Assyrian/Gothic progressive like you. We don't need revolution Ms. Piven. We have the vote and in November 2010 we achieved a Republican victory when the people across America spoke and showed you and your progressive friends who we were and what we expect of our government officials. We were taught by our forefather Joseph (the son of Jacob, later called Israel) to love liberty and freedom. We will not become your angry crowds, demonstrators, or have sit-ins or be your unruly mobs. That's the character of you and your Assyrian/Gothic friends.

You speak of job losses, and you can blame that on your progressive friends who have tried to destroy and dismantle America, and have done nothing to create jobs. Instead you hope to collapse the system instead of build it up. Your wish is to turn Americans against each other. We have known hard times before, and we do not fear hard times, because we will rebuild and restore our nation as we have done several times before. We will help to lift our brothers and sisters up again.

Anger, pride, violence, and rage are not the characteristics of the Shemitic/Semitic race. They are the characteristics of the Hamitic race. It is the character of satan as well.

If you are looking for revolution here as you see in England and Greece, you are going to wait a long time. England is our brother, and although they find themselves in troubled times, they will overcome, because they were also given the blessing of the firstborn son of Jacob. England will not fall. Greece is another story. If you study history, Ms. Piven, you will find that the Greeks are actually an ancient Phoenician/Canaanite race, a Hamitic race. They are the ancient enemies of Israel, and they were not blessed to succeed.

With Obama in the White House the progressives are embolden, as you are Ms. Piven. Thankfully your coming out and opening and espousing your schemes helps us to understand what you are up to so that your plans can be thorted. The Bible tells us that those that set a net or traps for us will fall into their own nets and traps. The fact that you like Obama and his plans that he is trying to carry out "under the radar" as you say, shows us that you are both on the same side. Interesting.

How is it that you speak treason and sedition, and that you have not been tried for both? Perhaps your wasted life will one day catch up with you. Just sayin'.

Take your revolution somewhere else, because we, the majority of Americans, will not fall for your crap.

Although, this being a new year, maybe we should start paying attention to what she says. Maybe we should go after the people. We should blowup Piven's office and home. And while at it. Keel haul Bernardine Dohrn under one of her freedom ships and blow up Bill Ayers' house cars and anywhere he can be found. I could go on with the new black panthers and the rest of the hate preachers. You get the idea. So Piven, you are at it again. How come you communist troublemakers don't spread you own wealth? You are just as greedy as the people you talk against. YOU ARE EVIL PERSONIFIED! You want a violent show of solidarity? Read a lot of the comments on this blog and you will see what most people really think of you and your pathetic self-serving tactics. The working people are losing their homes and pensions because a bunch of weasels like you (communist low lifes) are in the government. But, we will clean house again in 2012 just as we did Nov 2010 to get more of them out. Not with your bloodthirsty tactics. You must be from a long line of VAMPIRES. As far as apparent injustice, that has been around since the beginning of time. So, to think violence will end it is ludicrous. THE BALLOT BOX WILL END IT . Demand enhanced safety net protections and big initiatives to generate jobs? We already have way too much government hand outs, control, and out of control spending. Which is what evil people like you want because that causes problems too. What we need is for people like you to disappear and get that EVIL LOUSE OBUMMER out of office. The saddest part of all your rhetoric is that you don't really care as you try to make it seem. YOU ARE JUST A NASTY OLD BLOODTHIRSTY WITCH THAT LOVES VIOLENCE. WELL ENJOY THE SHOW IN GREECE AND WHEREVER ELSE IT IS GOING ON. WE KNOW WHAT PEOPLE LIKE YOU WANT. WE ARE WISE TO YOU AND YOUR KIND. YOU AND THE REST OF THEM SHOULD DISAPPEAR DOWN A BLACK HOLE!

I live in the far suburbs of Philly. I say, go for it, we could use a good thinning of the useless people herd. The first thing they will do is burn their own city, including busses, taxis, police cars, fire trucks and trains. THEN, no one will deliver food to them. Oops. Now, the highways are clogged with burned out vehicles, and they are 20 miles away from food, and have no way to get to it. And, even if the highways and train tracks weren't unusable, most city folks don't have cars. If they did try walking towards the suburbs and wreaking havoc, the local constabulary and armed citizens can cull the herd even further. THEN, the unemployment rate would go way down, because the government leeches would be dramatically reduced. Go for it!

Every time I hear from this female creature I feel sick! Why is she still here?! UGH!

The irony that she would hook up with Cloward, someone equally as monstrous, is staggering.

How many years has this abomaly spent upon this earth and she still remains devoid of ANYTHING human.

OK! If it is violence she wants I think we should start with Ms. Piven. How about we snatch her and fly her to Geece and dump her. There is plenty of violence going on there, freakin' anti american windbag. Will someone please explain to me why these unhappy bitches don't just move to a county that is governing the way they think is right and better. Ah, like Cuba, China, Greece, Spain, Russia and so many more, Huh? Could it be the freedom to earn big bucks like Striesand's $60 mil per year? GwB was elected and re-elected and she's still here.

This woman better watch out what she asks for, she just might get it.

If she wants violence, then she has no right to complain when someone gives it to her.

I want to know what parent allows their child to be brain washed by this Marxist? What university would even allow her to teach unless they endorse Marxism? Why are any of the 60and 70's radicals allowed to teach their hatred to impressionable minds? Has the whole country gone crazy? Sure seems so. No wonder the likes of Obama can be elected so readily. Our young voters are brainwashed robots.

Onebulletoneconservative: I, for one, am terrified. You sound like what you are, a left wing nut job.

I am so scared of you that you should know that I always carry my piece, and love to party. Just ask the two home invaders that made the mistake of breaking into my home, oh you can't, unless you discuss it with them in hell.

You do sound like you could use a lot of mental health help. I would suggest that you seek that help before you find out just what a lot of us can do, the hard way! While you are at it start educating yourself. Right now you are so brainwashed that you definitely qualify as what Stalin called an idiot.

its amazing to see this old geezer hippie is still such an icon to all the lowlives in this country. She reminds me of pelosi. wasn't too long ago she was on stage with the Clintons at their inauguration. Now I see why lefties hated McCarthy so much. Heres a hint you filthy hippie: the people you are advocating violence against are the most prepared, the most free, and the most fierce people on the planet. While you hate freedom- we love liberty. just because you've amassed a coalition of welfare recipients, we do not fear you. It is you that fears us. And rightly so.

@Nancybee

Deer slugs work best! Coyotes don't get back up when you hit them in the head with one of those. Otherwise use a #8 or higher in buck shot you can't miss with that.

Good luck and put ammo on the shopping list.

From Matthew Vadum, Newsreel Blog (Vadum is a Horowitz acolyte and has written a lot about "Cloward-Piven;" he is a key person in stoking the hatred toward her):

<http://www.newsrealblog.com/2011/01/08/marxist-frances-fox-piven-calls-for-a-violent-uprising-against-the-american-system-1/>

"If at first you don't succeed in murdering America's constitutional legacy of limited government, try, try again. This sums up the approach of Marxist academic and activist Frances Fox Piven. The strategy of orchestrated crisis she pioneered with her late husband Richard Cloward helped generate chaos in American society throughout the 1960s and 1970s. The so-called Cloward-Piven Strategy inflicted a lot of damage on the nation but it didn't quite succeed in bringing America to its knees, as its authors intended. So now Piven is calling for a new strategic attack on the American system of government."

From Angry White Dude's blog, January 9, 2011:

<http://angrywhitedude.com/?tag=frances-fox-piven>

"The blame for yesterday's violence should be placed at the feet of Frances Fox Piven and not Sarah Palin."

And, finally, in the wake of the Tucson massacre, Glenn Beck's exhortation to his followers to take a pledge to denounce "violent threats and calls for the destruction of our system – regardless of their underlying ideology – whether they come from the Hutaree Militia or Frances Fox Piven."
